

I am opposed to increasing the media ownership within a single market. I believe that this reduces competition and may consolidate a media owner's viewpoints within single markets.